

Anchor agility in your company sustainably

Have you identified the first challenges in the field of agility and in your organisation? Experience and reflect, embedded in a game setting, inhibiting and supporting framework conditions for agility.

Become a champion of your agility agilerate® supports you if you

- ... have just discovered agile for yourself, or
- ... already have experience with agile working agilerate® offers you support in reflecting on one's own organisation and thus provides possibilities for action, defining the appropriate level of agile and traditional ways of working for your organisation, empowerment to shape your transformation into an agile organisation, the dovetailing of both forms of work for successful cooperation.

agilerate® we for you

We accompany you intensively on your development journey over five modules. You are in good hands with us, both methodically and personally.

- ✓ Get off to a good start in anchoring agile work
- ✓ Experience and understand the differences and similarities between agile and traditional working methods.
- ✓ Identify and resolve points of tension between the two ways of working
- ✓ Set up a strategy for the path to an agile organisation
- ✓ Identify stumbling blocks and success factors
- ✓ Ensure sustainable progress through retrospection
- ✓ Helping people to help themselves
